Officer Lynch,

Thank you for the email. I am very glad you enjoyed the training! I would love to talk to you more and discuss some of what we did in the class and what type of training you see needed in your area.

I am all over the state and I am sure your schedule is busy too, but I would love to meet and talk sometime.

Thank you for making the time to come to the training.

For the Animals,

Kim Koon

Kim,

Thank-you again for holding this course! I had a great time and learned a lot. If you're ever in the Tacoma area let me know, I'd love to take you to lunch.

Very Respectfully,
Officer Nathan Lynch #734

Hello,

You are receiving this email to confirm your attendance at the Washington State Crime Prevention

6/1/2018

Animal Cruelty Investigation Classes this week. Below are the class details. We still have room in both classes, so please let any interested colleagues know they are welcome to register! I have attached the registration form.

Please do not hesitate to call or email me with any questions.

Kim Koon: 206-300-7218

CLASS DETAILS:

WHERE:

Both classes will be held in Everett, Washington on the first floor of the Robert J. Drewel Building in Public Meeting Room 1.

Robert J. Drewel Building

3000 Rockefeller Avenue

Everett, WA 98201

PARKING:

There is a parking garage under the county building located at the address above. This is the best parking option. A full day of parking, arriving before 8am is $6.00.

WHEN: BOTH classes will start at 8am and end at 5pm.

DAY 1: January 23rd, 2014

Officer Safety: Avoiding the use of lethal force on dangerous dogs

DAY 2: January 24th, 2014

Successful Equine Investigations

For this class, please dress prepared to spend 2-3 hours outside.

You will be given an hour for lunch. Coffee, water and light snacks will be provided in the class.

Both classes will award certificates for this specialized training upon completion.

I look forward to meeting you! Thank you for your interest in these important classes.
